Early Years Music Conference

This conference is an opportunity for all those who value the importance of music for very young children to communicate with others and gain new ideas. All attendees will receive a copy of 'The Guide to Music' (book, CD and ideas for early years music making). You will have access to a range of workshops which will include practical activities such as storytelling and music, using instruments, listening and responding to children's creative music making, songs, working musically with children with additional needs and linking musical activity to all areas of the Early Years Foundation Stage.

Key Note Speaker - Sue Nicholls has worked as a primary and Early Years specialist, latterly as an Advanced Skills Teacher, enabling her to follow her particular passion within music education: the support of the generalist teacher. Her books published by A & C Black demonstrate an accessible and practical approach to delivering the music curriculum at Early Years Foundation Stage and KS1. She has contributed material to other books such as 'Singing Sherlock' and 'Voiceworks at Christmas', and produced two recent song collections: 'The Song Stack' and 'The Playground Song Book' published by Music Educational Supplies. Her latest book 'Voicelinks' forms part of the 'Voiceworks' series and is published by OUP. Sue led 'Sing Up' workshops across the country and currently works as an independent education consultant delivering training nationwide, including ITT music modules at two universities.

The conference fee is £30 per person and includes a copy of 'The Guide to Music' book and CD and buffet lunch. Places are limited and will be allocated on a first come first served basis. Please book by Feb 3rd 2012 at the latest. Registration from 9.00am. Conference starts at 9.30am
