“The title ‘A Seat At The Table’ was chosen to symbolise inclusivity, empowerment, and the recognition of the importance of diverse perspectives, particularly in the context of Youth Voice. It means to respect that young people are the experts of their own experiences and represents the intentional creation of a space where young people feel not only heard but also valued as contributors to discussions and decision-making processes.”

Shakira and Yasmine,
Wired4Music Associates

PROGRAMME

Note: This is an abbreviated programme. View the full programme here.

9.30am Check in and refreshments

10am Personal Perspectives

IPIA hosts Estée Blu and karmokar will welcome everyone to the day and set the scene, followed by personal perspectives on journeys into music and how we can empower or amplify young people’s voices:

- Parris OH, Artist Partnerships Manager at TikTok
- A Piece of the Pie: Zoë (CEO) and Katie (Trustee) from Pie Factory Music
- Keynote: Milli-Rose Rubin

Introduction to workshops: The process for signing up to workshops and surgeries will be explained. Delegates will have a choice of two out of four workshops to attend throughout the day.*

LONG TABLE DISCUSSION

Using the 'Long Table' format developed by Lois Weaver, our discussion opens a safe space for everyone present to express their thoughts in informal conversations where they feel valued and heard.

Find out more about the Long Table format here.

Guidelines:

- Only those sat at the table can speak.
- You can stay at the table as little or as long as you want.
- You can at any time join/leave/come back to the table.
- Respect everyone's opinions and listen to each other.
- Avoid dominating the conversation.

Prompts:

- What does having 'A Seat at the Table' mean to you?
- When was the first time you felt like you had a seat or gave a seat to someone else?
- What does the music industry/music education sector need to do to share power with young people?
- What are your key takeaways from today's event?

Everyone is welcome to come to the table, ask questions, make statements, leave comments, or simply sit, listen, and watch.
